Trinitarian Weaving

Susan Gill at 2024 Training Event for ACSD

Holy

Suggestions:

Most of us feel inadequate at times – this is a good thing

Godself is constantly weaving threads of goodness into our lives, especially among our ‘weaknesses’

Our Sp D practice is enhanced when we are aware of our own weaknesses and of God’s eternal welcome

God of honest prayers and
More honest silences,
Open our eyes to see and
Our ears to hear and
Our hearts to understand
How you are already here with us.
Let us find ourselves, interwoven in you.

Divine Personhood

1. How does pondering the Trinitarian God as persons, relations, and / or actions affect your relationship with Godself?
2. How might it impact your directees?

We know how much God loves us because we have felt this love and because we believe it when he tells us that she loves us dearly.

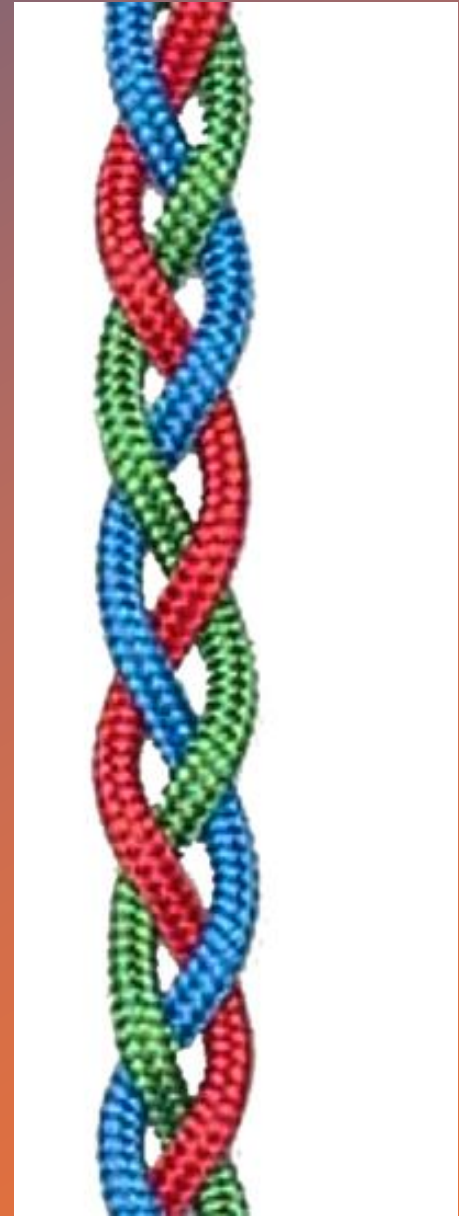

1 John 4:16

...three is even better, for a triple-braided cord is not easily broken.

Ecclesiastes 4:12

"You're perfect."

Lily / God

Atua Whaea, Mother God, gather us as
A hen gathers her chicks
And let us catch our breath
For one hot second and remember
How you hold the whole world
In your kind, capable, wise hands,
Including us.

Brother Jesus, we are grateful for (Mostly) every moment
That brought us here
To you.
Help us to sink down into your Love
To weave our lives with yours
Secure within your grace and mercy
As we practice loving this world as you have Loved this world.

Wairua Tapu,
When we cannot separate the warp nor weft
Of our own traditions and old languages,
When our weaving feels like a mess of knots
Would you help us untie the tangles
For us to find new ways to thread ,
New practices, new permissions
To simply be ourselves?

May we learn to sit with you at the loom,
And know it is enough to know you,
And be known by you,
And know ourselves.

The truth of our belovedness,
Of your justice, of your faithfulness,
Of arohanui.
And say Āmine.
Let it be so; let it be in us,
Let it be in our Directees.
